BUNKER Miniatures is excited to host the one-day Team Yankee Firestorm Campaign event! This campaign thrusts you into the dramatic opening stages of the Battle for Germany in August 1985. As history hangs in the balance, your decisions on the tabletop will either solidify or rewrite the fate of nations during this Cold War flashpoint.

This one-day campaign brings to life the surprise Soviet offensive into Germany and NATO's desperate defense and counterattacks. Each game you play represents a pivotal battle in this alternate history, with your victories (and defeats) shaping the campaign's outcome.
