Ginger Odin Miniature Wargaming

Event Timetable

Welcome to this event from Ginger Odin Miniature Wargaming! We're a new entity running table-top miniature wargaming events. Despite being a new entity, Alex from GOMW has been running events now for a few years from tournaments to narrative events of all kinds of table-top games.

From Warhammer, Lord of The Rings, Bolt Action and Battletech, no game system is safe from the dreng of Ginger Odin.

Drop us a like and a follow on our Facebook page and share the word that this Viking is raiding the wargaming industry!

Miniatures, Proxies and Painting

All proxies to models must be approved by the TO prior to the event. We are quite relaxed with rules on proxies. However, models must be on the correct base size and shapes. The models should clearly represent the intended models. If you have any proxies to approve, email pictures to gingerodinminiaturewargaming@outlook.com

All models must be painted. Any model not painted, including dismounts, must be removed as casualties.

Tables & Missions

We will be playing the rules from the Middle Earth Strategy Battle Game. All rules and model's stats will be read from their respective rulebook, or the latest FAQ.

Mission objectives will be revealed on the day of the event. Missions will be selected from the Matched Play book.

Games will be played on 4ft x 4ft tables covered in a variety of terrain provided by FactoruM. Alex from Ginger Odin Miniature Wargaming is very passionate about Lord of The Rings and works hard to represent locations from Middle Earth. This will mean tables will have a mix of dense and sparse amounts of terrain.

If a table is "unplayable" or "unfair", players must speak to a TO who will assist. Every effort will be made to make every table have a balanced amount of terrain, regardless of which table edge players deploy on.

Creating Your Force

Players must make a legal 750 points list, using any units from the Army Books, and expansions. Legendary legions are allowed. Alliances are also allowed but must adhere to the rules set out in the Alliance Matrix.

List Submission Deadline

The list submission deadline is Saturday night, 1 week before the event. All updates to rules after list submission will NOT be in use.

Army lists must be submitted to Longshanks.

The event on Longshanks is called The Salted Pork is Particularly Good GBHL 90 – A Ginger Odin Event

Important Things to Note

Your list must be legal up to the limit of 750 points.

All FAQ updates and erratas released on the Saturday, a week before the event will be used. Lists already submitted before the updates, must be reuploaded to include the new rules and or points. Failure to do this may result in disqualification.

Alex's Don't Be an Ahole Rule

Every event Ginger Odin Miniature Wargaming is supposed to be fun for everyone attending. All players will have spent money attending, so should have the best experience possible.

We are dedicated to creating a community of players who always attend events to have fun, and not focus on winning every game. So far, we have an amazing community that does just that.

Every event will follow the philosophy of “The aim of a game is to win, but the point is to have fun.”
